Case No. 2:14-cv-01649-RFB-GWF

ORDER

Defendants' Second Motion for Limited
Modification of Asset Freeze (ECF No. 123)

13 This matter is before the Court on Defendants' Second Motion for Limited Modification
14 of the Asset Freeze (ECF No. 123) that has been in place since the Court first entered a Temporary
15 Restraining Order (TRO) against Defendants in its Order entered on October 9, 2014. See ECF
16 No. 12.

17 On October 7, 2014, Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission (FTC) filed a complaint
18 requesting a permanent injunction and other equitable relief against the moving Defendants. ECF
19 No. 1. On the same day, the FTC filed an ex parte motion for a temporary restraining order, 20 including an asset freeze and appointment of a Temporary Receiver, which the Court granted on 21 October 9, 2014. ECF Nos. 5, 12. On December 4, 2014, following a hearing, the Court issued an 22 order modifying the asset freeze for a three-month period. ECF No. 77. Specifically, the Court
23 ordered the Receiver to disburse $30,000 per month in attorneys' fees to Ifrah PLLC and Snell &
24 Wilmer LLC and to disburse $1,500 per month to Defendants Jason and Danelle Miller ("the 25 Millers") for living and personal expenses. Id. The Court also authorized the Receiver to make 26 direct bill payments of up to $10,000 per month for certain specified expenses of the Millers. Id.
27 This order stated that it would expire on February 28, 2014. Id. at 5.
28

1 On February 5, 2015, the FTC filed an amended complaint in which it named an additional 2 thirty-four corporate Defendants. ECF No. 114. At a status conference on February 18, 2015, the 3 Millers and the corporate Defendants (together, the “Miller-related Defendants”) made an oral 4 motion to extend the order modifying the asset freeze to permit the continued disbursement of 5 funds for living expenses and attorneys’ fees. Minutes of Proceedings, ECF No. 121. The Court
6 extended its order for one month with respect to the disbursement of $1,500 for the Millers’
7 personal expenses, but did not extend it for any other payments. Id. On February 23, 2015, the 8 Miller-related Defendants filed a second motion requesting a modification of the asset freeze, in 9 which they essentially requested an extension of the Court’s original modification order of 10 December 4, 2014. ECF No. 123.

11 The Court has considered the parties’ briefs and representations heard at the hearing held 12 on this matter on March 23, 2015. At this time, the Court is not convinced that other assets are not 13 available to the Millers or that it would be appropriate to permit the continued expenditure of 14 receivership assets for attorneys’ fees for the Miller-related Defendants. For these reasons as well
15 as those stated on the record at the March 23 hearing, and in light of the inherent equitable power
16 of this Court to fashion “provisional remedies ancillary to its authority to provide final equitable 17 relief,” Reebok Intern., Ltd. v. Marnatech Enterprises, Inc., 970 F.2d 552, 559 (9th Cir. 1992), the 18 Court finds that there is good cause to order a temporary modification to the asset freeze imposed
19 in this case to permit access to funds for personal expenses, health insurance payments, and child
20 care payments, but not for attorneys’ fees. Defendants’ motion is therefore GRANTED in part and 21 DENIED in part.

22 ORDER

23 Accordingly,

24 IT IS ORDERED that the Temporary Receiver shall have the authority to make direct bill
25 payments for three (3) months on behalf of Defendants Danelle and Jason Miller for the following
26 expenses only: (1) court-ordered child support on behalf of Jason Miller, and (2) monthly premium 27 payments for the Millers’ health insurance plan purchased through Anthem Blue Cross. The 28

1 Temporary Receiver shall make these bill payments using funds held in the Millers' personal 2 accounts at Comerica Bank, which shall remain frozen except for expenditures made by the 3 Temporary Receiver as authorized in this Order. If, as a result of this Order, the funds held in the 4 Millers' personal accounts are depleted such that they drop to $5,000 or less, the Temporary 5 Receiver shall begin making bill payments from funds held in the accounts of Method Films Inc.
6 and shall use its discretion to choose those account(s) from which it is most appropriate or 7 convenient to withdraw funds. The Millers shall submit copies of invoices for the bills or expenses
8 described above, including the amounts due, to the Temporary Receiver on or before the fifteenth
9 (15th) day of each month that this Order is in effect, with the first date for submitting invoices
10 occurring on April 15, 2015. Upon receiving those invoices, the Temporary Receiver shall 11 immediately make the appropriate payments from the accounts described above.

12 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Temporary Receiver shall disburse $1,500 per 13 month directly to Defendants Danelle and Jason Miller using funds held in the Millers' personal 14 accounts at Comerica Bank, which shall remain frozen except for expenditures authorized in this 15 Order, for three (3) months beginning on April 1, 2015 for living and personal expenses.
16 Defendants Danelle and Jason Miller shall keep records of all purchases and expenditures made
17 using cash disbursements released to them by the Temporary Receiver and shall submit receipts
18 or other documentation for all purchases or expenditures to the Temporary Receiver on or before 19 the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month that this Order is in effect, with the first date for 20 submitting documentation occurring on April 25, 2015. If the Millers have complied with this 21 requirement, the Temporary Receiver shall disburse funds on the first day of each month that this 22 Order is in effect, with the final disbursement under this Order occurring on June 1, 2015. The 23 requirement that the Millers provide documentation of their purchases to the Temporary Receiver
24 also applies to the first disbursement occurring on April 1, 2015; in order to receive this 25 disbursement, the Millers must submit documentation relating to purchases made using the funds
26 that were disbursed on March 1, 2015.

27 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that during the three (3) months that this Order is in effect
28 (beginning on April 1, 2015 and ending on June 30, 2015), Defendants Danelle and Jason Miller

1 shall submit documentation to the Temporary Receiver on the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each 2 month demonstrating their efforts towards obtaining lawful employment.

3 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants Danelle and Jason Miller shall obtain the 4 permission of the Temporary Receiver before transferring, selling, leasing, or otherwise disposing 5 of (or attempting to do the same) any real or personal property in their possession that they have 6 not already turned over to the Temporary Receiver, including their home located in Woodland 7 Hills, California.

8 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if Defendants Danelle and Jason Miller come into 9 actual or constructive possession or control of any additional funds or assets not previously 10 disclosed to this Court, the Temporary Receiver and the FTC, they shall immediately and fully 11 disclose such funds or assets to this Court, the Temporary Receiver and the FTC and shall 12 immediately turn over such funds or assets to the Temporary Receiver. This includes, but is not 13 limited to, any funds or assets currently being held abroad and which have not yet been repatriated
14 to the United States, funds derived from the Millers' ownership interest in real property located in 15 Indiana and described as "Main Street House, IN" in Item 17 of Schedule C of their financial 16 disclosures to the FTC, and the sum of $120,000, or any portion of it, which was tendered by 17 Defendants Danelle and Jason Miller for the purpose of purchasing a house in Puerto Rico and 18 described by the Millers in their supplemental brief (ECF No. 64) as currently remaining in Puerto 19 Rico.

20 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Temporary Receiver shall submit a report to this 21 Court and the FTC on or before the fifth (5th) day of each calendar month that this Order is in 22 effect, excluding the first month. The report shall disclose the exact amount spent by the 23 Temporary Receiver to pay the bills of Defendants Danelle and Jason Miller for the previous 24 month, shall note any missing documentation for living and personal expenditures made by the 25 Millers, and shall report to this Court as to the Millers' compliance with this Order.

27 ///

1           IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Court does not authorize the expenditure of any 2 funds under the control of the Temporary Receiver as payment for counsel for the Miller-related 3 Defendants at this time. The Temporary Receiver shall submit its position with respect to whether 4 the Court should authorize such an expenditure by April 6, 2015.

5           IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the modifications to the asset freeze described in this 6 Order shall take effect on April 1, 2015 and shall expire on June 30, 2015.
